

STRIP CUTTER

A) Hand operated Precision Strip cutting machine especially designed to obtain strips having a very extra breadth. It can cut the strips in various breadths with the adjustment of a micrometrical screw within any change of parts, equipped with four knives, two of them are sliding on the axis. The knives are interchangeable and can be re-sharpened, having capacity to cut maximum thickness of metal upto 0.7 mm, minimum width of cut 6 mm, maximum width of cut 40 mm.

B) Same as above but motorised model with electric motor and switch.